20. Best Practices adopted, if any

- Online student facilitation (Course delivery and examination) during pandemic through Blackboard (a virtual learning environment through DMU, UK)
- Library facility having collection of huge e- books and journals.
- Our university- DMU raked in top 50 universities for sustainability practices through Sustainability at DMU
- Webinars and activities are planned throughout the year on topics relating to individual modules and sensitizing students towards society and sustainable development.
- DCBS Rotaract Club has been formed and carries out social welfare activities. Faculties are also motivated to participate in training programmes like Universal Human Values, activities of DCBS Rotaract Club and research on various issues to add to the existing pool of knowledge and to share insights with the students and community.

- Overall Development of students is the key focus. To attain this, Webinars and activities are planned throughout the year on topics relating to individual modules and sensitizing students towards society and sustainable development. DCBS Rotaract Club has been formed and carries out social welfare activities. Faculties are also motivated to participate in training programmes like Universal Human Values, activities of DCBS Rotaract Club and research on various issues to add to the existing pool of knowledge and to share insights with the students and community. As an institution, DCBS has started recognizing individuals who have been contributing through various faculties to make this world a better place (Ref – Rotaract Field Activities, Aparajita, UHV and Faculty Research Work).
- Academic research-based book launch- DCBS took initiative and launched on 11 Feb, 2022 a research-based book- “Anveshak- Demystifying contemporary business scenarios” having a rich collection of research papers, articles and cases. The inception of the book is from the online Case writing workshop which was conducted by DCBS in May 2021. The Speaker of the workshop was Dr. Girish Agrawal, ex- IIM professor. After the successful workshop and keen interest shown by participants academic piece of writing is called for the book. The selected content was gone through three levels of reviews – internally and externally at DCBS. Contributors of the book are various academicians, students, and research scholars. This book is published by Asian press having government authorized ISBN number.
- Multi-Disciplinary conference- IQAC cell of DCBS hosted the International Multidisciplinary virtual conference on “Future Vision for India @100” in association with the Research Foundation of India on 28th and 29th Jan, 2022 under Aazadi ka Amrut Mahotsav. Dignitaries, Eminent national and international speakers, Practitioners, researchers and students from across the world connected virtually for sharing thoughts and research related to the topic of discussion. In all, 39 research papers were presented by the participants on diverse topics.
